Product description

The Porsche 911 is a sports car icon. A synonym for uncompromising sportiness. A quality epitomised by every Porsche 911 going back more than 50 years. Each one was developed for superlative performance. Just like the youngest member of the family: the new Porsche 911 GT3 Cup. A pure-bred race car. Our racing history confers obligation. Not only to strive for the next victory, but also to keep on improving. Like we've done with the 911 GT3 Cup. Thanks to its ongoing development, it has become one of the most competitive race cars in customer racing today. And it has proven to be one of the most successful for some time: with more than 3,500 examples made, it has been the car of choice for the Porsche One-Make-Series since 1990 and is the most produced and most sold racing car in the world - not least because of its outstanding versatility.
