Product description

The rear bumper for the Porsche 911 model 992 GT3, part number 9GT898014, is a high-quality original replacement part directly from Porsche. This bumper has been specially developed for the GT3 version of the Porsche 911 model 992 and guarantees a perfect fit and optimum performance.

As a new, unused and undamaged part, this bumper not only guarantees an aesthetic upgrade for your vehicle, but also unparalleled durability and resistance to environmental influences. The bumper is made from high-quality materials that meet Porsche's strict quality standards, ensuring a long service life and excellent functionality.

The installation of this bumper is straightforward and uncomplicated, as it is an original part designed specifically for the 992 model. This not only makes installation easier, but also minimises the likelihood of fitment issues that can occur with non-original parts.

Invest in this original Porsche bumper to maintain and enhance the performance and appearance of your Porsche 911 992 GT3.
