Product description

The rear spoiler / wing for the Porsche 718 Cayman model 982 GT4RS, made of high-gloss carbon, is a complete set that also includes the side parts. This original Porsche part has the OEM number 9GT825871A KPL and has been specially developed for the 982 model of the Porsche 718 Cayman.

The spoiler is used but in very good condition and undamaged. The use of carbon not only ensures high strength and durability, but also a significant weight reduction, which is particularly important for the performance and handling of the vehicle. The high-gloss finish also gives the vehicle an aesthetically pleasing and sporty look.

This rear spoiler is ideal for drivers who want to improve the aerodynamics of their Porsche 718 Cayman without compromising on original parts and their reliable quality. Installation is quick and easy thanks to the complete delivery including the side parts, which eliminates the need for additional adjustments or modifications.
